DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-22 and 64-70, drawn to methods for evaluating specificity of a drug, classified in class 702, subclass 19. If this Group is elected then a specie election as summarized below is also required.
- II. Claims 23-44, drawn to methods for determining therapeutic index of a drug, classified in class 514, subclass 2. If this Group is elected then a specie election as summarized below is also required.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

The inventions of Group I and Group II are related only in the evaluation of a drug effects over pathways. The method steps of the evaluations of Groups I and II are unrelated in that the method of evaluating specificity of Group I is determined from activities of a drug against target versus non-target pathways, whereas the Group II methods of therapeutic index evaluation are directed to minimum effective versus minimum toxic concentration determinations regarding target versus non-target pathways. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the distinct inventions of Groups I and II are directed to drug activity evaluation on various pathways and minimum effective/toxic concentration evaluation on pathways, respectively, which are distinct evaluations. For example, the drug specificity evaluation of Group I must be determined by at least comparing activities for a constant drug concentration in order to evaluate pathway differences whereas the Group II evaluation must utilize different drug concentrations in order to determine said minimums as discussed above.

SPECIE ELECTION FOR EITHER OF GROUPS I OR II:

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Specie A: The biological sample under evaluation has been modified in that a critical gene in a target pathway has been deleted or made nonfunctional.

Specie B: The biological sample under evaluation has not been modified regarding either the deletion or making nonfunctional of a critical gene in a target pathway.

These species are distinct because the evaluation of an altered biological sample or system, for example, by genetic engineering results in a non-natural (or non-wild-type) sample or system which then adds an undue search burden to both search for such types of sample or system evaluations as well as analyze what differences may result in conclusions due to the wild-type versus non-wild-type sample or system characteristics.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 8-12, 19-22, and 64-70 in Group I and claims 23 and 32-34 in Group II are generic to the above species.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1631

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Papers related to this application may be submitted to Technical Center 1600 by facsimile transmission. Papers should be faxed to Technical Center 1600 via the PTO Fax Center located in Crystal Mall 1.
